BULLETIN 197 – 2021-22 WORLD CUPS AND WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS TEAM NOMINATION

January 25, 2022

RE: Addendum to HP Bulletin 197 – 2021-22 World Cups and World Championships Team Nomination last revised as of November 11, 2021

The purpose of this HP Bulletin 197 – 2021-22 World Cups and World Championships Team Nomination Addendum (the “Addendum”) is to amend the Junior selection process outlined in Section 5.6.

Junior-aged athletes who meet the below selection criteria will be nominated to the 2022 Canadian Junior Team and will be eligible for the following:

- An exclusive training camp with the National Program athletes and coaches in the 2022-2023 off-season
- A National/NextGen Team Descente skinsuit and team apparel

For the avoidance of doubt, Section 5.6 from HP Bulletin 197 is replaced in its entirety and amended as indicated in this Addendum.

Amendment and Restatement of Section 5.6 of HP Bulletin 197

Section 5.6 is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

5.6.1 Performance Results

Selection Event: Canada Cup 3/Grand Prix, March 11-13, 2022 (Calgary)

The priority of selection of athletes will be based on the following:

Priority 1

Subject to Byes, the first four (4) athletes per gender in the Allround ranking (total sammelagt points) will be nominated according to:

- Ranking determined as the cumulative total of 4 distances, in sammelagt;
- Distances used: 500m (first), 1000m (first), 1500m, 3000m (women), 5000m (men)

The Junior Canadian Allround Champion (per gender) will be determined by the cumulative total of 4 distances, in sammelagt.

Priority 2

The Chair, in his or her sole, full and absolute discretion reserves the right to add up to one additional athlete per gender, who shows medal potential possibility in a sprint distance. To be considered for Nomination, athlete(s) must achieve one or more of the following Qualifying Times at Canada Cup 3/Grand Prix:

	Women	Men
500m	38.58	35.10
1000m	1.16.19	1.09.02
