Article IV. SELECTION PROCESS

Section 4.01 Quota

According to the ISU Qualification System, Canada can qualify up to two (2) positions per gender for the 2024 Winter Your Olympic Games.

Section 4.02 SELECTION PRIORITY

Once the quota places have been determined by the ISU, based on results at the 2023 World Junior Short Track Championships, the following order of priority will be used to select the athletes per gender who will be nominated to compete. Except as otherwise provided in this Policy, eligible athletes will be nominated at each priority level until there are no athletes, or no further athletes, who satisfy the given priority.

Ties will be broken in favour of the athlete with the better result in their second-best distance (i.e., the best result achieved in a distance other than the distance in which the athlete achieved his/her single top result). Any further ties will be broken in favour of the athlete with the better result based on the athlete’s best two (2) distance results at the Canadian Championships 2023.

Up to one (1) other quota position will be granted to the top ranked athlete from the 2023 Canadian Junior Championships, based on the athlete’s best 4 out of 6 events.
3. If no Junior athletes qualify to attend World Cups, then the top 2 ranked athletes from the 2023 Canadian Junior Championships will be nominated (best 4 out of 6 events).
